

EVANGELIST ZOE NANCY PHIRI

Evangelist, author and teacher.

2025

ABOUT ME

Evangelist Nancy Maworise-Phiri is a dynamic evangelist and passionate missionary, married to Pastor Joseph Phiri. Her ministry is marked by a deep commitment to soul-winning and advancing the Kingdom across nations. Driven by the Great Commission, Evangelist Nancy has ministered in diverse cultural and spiritual landscapes, including Pakistan—where multitudes have been saved—as well as South Africa, Zimbabwe, and Kenya. Her global outreach continues to expand, fueled by a burden for the unreached and the revival of the Body of Christ.

Known for her prophetic emphasis on accountability, Evangelist Nancy champions integrity and responsibility in leadership. She authored the impactful book “Accountability: A Prophetic Call for Integrity in Leadership,” challenging leaders across churches, governments, workplaces, and families to uphold godly transparency and faithfulness in their spheres of influence.

Her second book, “A Call to Return,” is a clarion call to the global church, urging believers to prepare spiritually for the imminent return of Jesus Christ. Through prophetic insight and scriptural wisdom, the book rekindles a sense of urgency, holiness, and readiness for the fulfilment of God’s divine plan.

Evangelist Nancy is also the co-founder of the 3AM International Women Prayer Network, a worldwide movement which emphasizes on intimacy with God and mobilizing women to intercede for revival, stand in the gap for nations, and uphold Kingdom values in families and communities. Her prophetic voice resonates across borders, inspiring the Church to awaken, align, and activate for the fulfilment of its divine mandate in these critical times.

